Society in the National Capital and Elsewhere daughter, who are now at a German spa for the benefit of the health of Mrs. Elkins. Senator and Mrs. Depew have already sailed for Europe, an annual pleasure from which they rarely deprive themselves. Mrs. Depew's mother lives in Paris, which was also her home for many years.

soon after the family is once more established. Theodore Roosevelt, jr., has a summer much after his liking planned for him, out-of-door life in the far west with his studies kept up with his tutor, who will likely be at the head of the expedition. Miss Roosevelt's excursion to the Philippines, for which she is preparing herself by studying Spanish, is of tremendous interest to herself and the nation, too. Her quarters aboard the Manchuria, which is one of the largest vessels affoat, are luxurious. Her suite will be on the high "bridge deck," and in her cabin a brass bed has high protecting rods on each side to prevent rolling mahogany wardrobe and a sofa are teces of the furnishings. Adjoining the cabin is a private bath. Her boudoir is fitted with a writing desk, extra wardrobe and sofa, all of mahogany. The paneling

The Vice President and Mrs. Fairbanks will have a strong attraction for the capital all summer, as their daughter, Mrs. Tim-mons, is to spend the time here, and has been comfortably established in a house on Woodley road for the past month.

of the sides and celling of her little suite is painted white and costly rugs cover the floors. In each of the three rooms is a large circular window or "side light," giving a view of the broad expanse of ocean, when the red curtains are drawn aside.

are so largely regulated by passing events that plans are hard to form for any length Secretary and Mrs. Hay do not an ticipate being here an hour longer than necessary and the state of Mr. Hay's health permits. The Shaws, mother, daughters and son, will travel, Mrs. Taft will spend the Interval of her husband's absence in the far east by a trip to Eng-land with her children and Mrs. Eckstein of Chicago and a quiet residence in Oxford for several months. Postmaster General and Mrs. Cortelyou will take short trips away. The Hitchcocks will keep two homes open, here and at Dublin, N. H., and Mrs. Metcalf will return to her home in Califor-Mrs. Bonaparte has been at "Bella sta." Baltimore county, the suburban ddence of the coming Secretary of the residence of the coming Secretary of the Navy, since his new honors have come to him, and so even her old neighbors in Bal-timore have not had a chance to extend their congratulations personally. Her health has not been good of late years, but society may look forward to meeting next winter one of the most charming of women. winter one of the most charming of women. She hopes that she will be able to do all that is required of a cabinet officer's wife.

The Admiral of the Navy and Mrs. Dewey will go north as usual this summer, their preference for Manhattan Beach for the first half and Saratoga for the latter part Justice and Mrs. Harlan, after a triumphal tour in their old home in Kentucky and among their old friends, are now at Mur-ray Bay, Canada, where they have a home. Justice and Mrs. Brown were greatly feted during their visit to Detroit and will sum-mer in Massachusetts. Justice and Mrs. White are at Narragansett, Justice and Mrs. Day have gone out to Canton; Jus-tice and Mrs. McKenna will be at Atlantic City, having found the Maine coast too vigorous for the latter's health. Justice and Mrs. Holmes are at Beverly, Mass., where they have a house, and Justice and Mrs. Peckham are at Altamont, N. Y.

A delightful house party was given by Benjamin Graves during the first part the week at the Glebe Rod and Gun to on the Patuxent river. The guests were the Misses Brown, Welss, Polkinhorn, Lutz, Anderson and Messrs, Pierce, Roberts, Hempstone, Duvall, Lemon and Bris-

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Blackford of Blair avenue, Takoma Park, have as their guests Col. and Mrs. John Brooks of North

Mrs. S. A. Duncanson and Miss M. P. Duncanson are among the Washingtonians spending the month of June at Atlantic City.

Minister W. W. Russell, who is now on his way to Venezuela to succeed Mr. Her-bert W. Bowen as the envoy of the United the Driving Club. States to that country, is accompanied by an intention of entertaining the friends of Ethel Roosevelt this summer at Oyster Bay, and that the hospitality of the President's home will be the first extended there the family is once more estant to the family together, Lady by the family together, Lady was much gratified at receiving the title was much grati and Baroness Moncheur, already abroad; the Slamese minister here, but booked for Magnolia, and the Cuban minister and his wife are abroad. The Chinese minister may be here most of the time, although he has leased a house at Amherst, near his old college, where his family will spend the summer. The Bolivian minister and famlly expect to travel, as will the Panama

> Mrs. Leupp and the Misses Kathleen and Constance Leupp are at Tyringham, in the Berkshires. Miss Leupp is abroad.

The Japanese legation will be an interesting spot this summer as the place where so much of international importance is sure to transpire. The Japanese have long owned their own legation on N street, which has adjoining it a large garden. It

Miss Mabel Burris is visiting in Knox-ville, Tenn., and taking part in the fes-tivities now at their height there. Mrs. James Robert Tindle will spend the summer with her parents, Senator and Mrs. Knox, at Valley Forge, and this week is being given a round of entertainments by her friends in Pittsburg. Mrs. Frank

Biddle Smith will be her hostess at a tea

Tuesday next.

ROOMS AT THE JAPANESE LEGATION.

Mrs. Nash, wife of Dr. Francis S. Nash. United States navy, will start shortly for Manila where her husband has preceded

Detroit, the guest of her cousin, Miss Louisa ning, Ella Keene, the Messrs. C. Albert Biddle. Fox. G. Chester Collison, H. Palmer Alden, Herbert Keene, Robert Keene, T. R. Senior land are at Magnolia, Mass., where they will take an active part in the gayeties, both mother and daughters being very pop-ular and much sought after wherever they Rev. Richard Lewis Howell and Mrs. Howell, who were married in Florida during the late winter, will be at Lenox this

Mr. and Mrs. Whittemore sailed on the 17th and will be at Bad Naunheim for the early part of the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. E. K. Goldsborough will summer at their Oakland place. Their son, Mr. Fitzhugh Coyle Goldsborough, whose success as a violinist in Vienna is a pleasant topic here, will make his first London appearance this summer.

Mrs. Thomas M. Bayne will be as usual at her home at Port Hope, Canada.

Mrs. O. P. Johnson will spend the sum-mer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland J. Hemmick, at Port Hope, Canada.

Ex-Justice and Mrs. Shiras will go to Mrs. Audenried is spending this month with her sister. Mrs. de Haven, at Ardmore.

Senator and Mrs. Newlands are to be members of Secretary Taft's Philippine party. They went to San Francisco some ington was married to Miss Margie Hum-entertainments. No minister from his country has enjoyed more personal popularity than Mr. Takahira, and this good feeling as been evinced particularly the past year. Mme. Takahira has been in her own country for some time, and several of her personal friends have received her portrait, in which she is dressed in her native costume. Mrs. John W. Mackay intends to resume er old place in London society in the fes-ivities. She has already inaugurated for the debut of her granddaughter, the Prin-cess Beatrice de Stigliano Colonna. Mrs. Mackay will give a series of cotillions and operatic concert with the great stars of Covent Garden next month.

Mrs. Mary E. Hitchcock, widow of Com-mander Roswell D. Hitchcock, and well known here, whose experiences in the Klondike some years ago showed her intrepid spirit as a traveler, and after ner return a great ability to talk interestingly f what she did and saw, arranged a novel in society generally ntertainment for the Navy Relief Society last week. She told stories of her experiences with persons and places, and an artist made sketches illustrating them. The stories ran from the ball room to the gold fields and were most entertaining.

from New York Thursday. Gen. Chaffee went to New York today to meet his wife, and both are going to Boston to her. and both are going to Boston to be present on commencement day at Tufts College, where a degree will be conferred on Gen.

Miss Grace McMillan Jarvis, granddaughter of the late Senator McMillan, is making a series of visits to Detroit friends.

Representative and Mrs. William Bailey Mr. Harry Hull's family left yesterday for their summer home, "Hulldale," Colonial Beach, Va., where they will remain until fall.

Lamar, who have been down among the former's Florida constituents since Congress adjourned, and where they both dispensed and accepted hospitality, are now at Mrs. Lamar's former home in Atlanta, Lamar, who have been down among the where on Wednesday, June 28, they will celebrate the first anniversary of their wedding by a dinner party of fifty covers at mother. Their departure is much regretted mel of that place. After the ceremony wedding breakfast was served, and later. amid showers of rice and good wishes, the young couple left for this city. The bride

Col. and Mrs. Tyler and Miss Tyler, whose New London house is occupied by Representative and Mrs. Hitt this summer, are abroad for the season.

The Chief Justice and Miss Fuller will be Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Francis will go abroad for the summer, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wallace will also take an ocean trip for the benefit of the latter's health. Mr. and Mrs. Padelford will be at Bar

Mrs. Frederick H. Coudert and her daughters, Mrs. F. H. Benedict and Miss Coudert, have gone abroad. Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Wilcox, who are world-wide travelers, have gone to Banff Springs in the Canadian Rockies.

Representative and Mrs. Dalzell, after participating in the festivities of Yale during commencement week, their youngest son. Robert Duff Dalzell, being a member his bride, to whom he was married shortly before leaving Bogota, Colombia, to which Cave Springs, Ga., to Mr. George H. Corey of the class of 1905, will journey out to the

The Misses Cullen, whose hospitalities at their K street home are always of such a delightful character, have gone abroad to spend their time well off the beaten line

Mrs. Stanley Matthews and Miss Addison

Commander and Mrs. Winslow are at Newport where they have a cottage.

received many beautiful presents.

Mitchell went abroad ast month.

Rear Admiral Hughes and family will number in New Hampshire. Mr. Harry Hughes, who has spent seven years abroad, four in study and the rest in singing in opera, recently returned to summer in this country. He will sing in Lyons, France, next season.

Gen. and Mrs. Draper, who had a pleasant season at their Hopedale, Mass., home after leaving here, have gone abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Keep will have

Mr. Robert Fairbanks, son of the Vice President, sailed on the 22d with a Yale friend to make a bicycle tour of England had a gala time abroad, passing the hunting season with titled friends in Leicestershire, are expected at Pride's Crossing at the Swift place for the summer.

among the permanent cottagers. Mr. and Mrs. John R. McLean and Mr.

Edward Beale McLean will be abroad several months, the latter hoping to get a great deal of sport automobiling in Scot-

Mrs. Hunt Slater will be at Bar Harbor,

Maj. Gen. Gillespie, retired, and his wife will sail Fourth of July for Europe, and expect to be gone about eighteen months. They will pass next winter in Egypt.

Kent, England, for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Spalding are at their prettily named summer home, "Fall-ingwaters," Saugerties-on-the-Hudson.

Senator and Mrs. Foraker, after a round of visits to their daughters and their Ohio home, will finish the heated term at

Lowell, Maine, a favorite resort with them, the latter intending to stay north all sum-

Mrs. and Miss Townsend may go abroad next month and begin the program of travel which the serious illness of the latter brought to a sudden standstill almost on the eve of their departure from the capital.

Hope, Ontario, as usual. Rear Admiral Selfridge and Mrs. Selfridge are at Jamestown, R. I., a most attractive spot to navy families, as indeed it is to many other Washingtonians.

Justice Morris and his sisters, the Misse Morris, Miss Colbert and Mrs. Hastings, and the attractive young daughter of the latter, Miss Edgarina Hastings, will go to Bethlehem, N. H., next month. Miss Has-Mrs. and Miss Denny have sailed for tings will be among the prettlest of the debutantes next season.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Poor are at their place at Skaneateles, N. Y., where Mrs. Maus, their daughter, will spend part of the heated term in the intervals of visits to friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Sowers and Miss Sowers, who are important members of the Washington colony at Port Hope, Canada, will be there again this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry May and their sons and daughters sailed this week, and will spend next month in England, with a tour of the continent before returning late in the autumn.

the summer and continue to entertain, as they have already, friends passing through Washington, After Miss India Bell Flem-ing's graduation next June the family will go abroad for an extended period of travel prior to her debut. Col. and Mrs. George F. Truesdell are at Deer Park, Md., where they have a cozy

Senator Elkins will soon join his wife and Miss Margaret Gale, who went into deep mourning during the latter part of the sea-son, is at Narragansett Pier, where she has a comfortable cottage in the neighborhood of the large hotels.

Mrs. Southerland and the Misses Souther-

Mr. and Mrs. John Sidney Webb and chil-

Mr. and Mrs. Merriam have gone to their

Mr. and Mrs. William Haywood and children are bound for Honolulu, where they have formerly resided and where they have a large acquaintance and are the recipients of many social attentions each time they

Mrs. John S. Ward, whose health has been delicate for the past year, has de-parted from her usual custom of going abroad for the summer, and has a cottage

Mrs. Slater of 18th street, who has a summer villa at Newport which approaches in elegance and size her house here, is already established there. Mrs. Slater is said to have eighteen servants in which-ever of her homes she is living, and besides generally takes a short trip abroad

Mrs. T. De Witt Talmage, who was called to Pittsburg by the death of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Collier, will not go abroad, as she had intended, because of the illness of her brother, but will spend the summer quietly within easy reach of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Pinchot are at York Harbor, Maine, where they have a place.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Prescott will be at Narragansett Pler as usual, where they do so much to entertain their friends, es-

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Barbour are at Locust Lodge, their summer place near Chevy Chase Lake, but will make several northern trips during the next two months.

the cottage in The Field, at Bar Harbor, owned by J. P. Bass of Bangor. General and Mrs. Schofield have just returned from Rear Admiral and Mrs. Schley are to be at Great Neck, L. I., this summer.

Capt. and Mrs. Warren C. Beach will go to Saratoga this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Droop and the Misses Droop went abroad last month,

Mrs. Bateman and Miss Beila Bateman have gone to Capon Springs for the sum-

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Foulke, who

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Galt are abroad.

Representative and Mrs. George W. Smith have gone to Portland, Ore., on their way to San Francisco, from which point they sail with the Taft party, July 8.

The wedding of Miss Susan Elizab Pearson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

pecially the younger set.

mer in Switzerland.

Virginia place.

at Lenox.

each year.

dren are at East Hampton, L. I., for the

M.PHILIPSBORN & CQ.
EXCLUSIVE CLOAK 610 Eleventh St bet F&G

$25 and $30 Suits,

$11.75

The most marvelous sale of Suits ever held anywhere begins here tomorrow.

Choice of two hundred and fifty Suits of Silk, Panama, Serge, Broadcloth and Cheviot, that sold at $22, $25, $28 and $30, have been uniformly reduced to $11.75 for choice.

All are late models, and the best of materials and workmanship is represented. All colors, including black, in all sizes.

Skirt Sale

500 Perfectly Tailored Skirts of fine Panama, Sicilian, Voile and striped suitings are reduced about one-third, to

$4.95 $5.95

Linen Skirts

New models, made by man tailors with the same care we give to our cloth skirts.

$2.90 for Skirts of White Bordeaux Linen, with 17 deep pleated gores. Value, $4.00.

$3.50 for Skirts of White Bordeaux Linen, 31 side pleat model; cut very wide. Value, $5.00.

Linen Suits Reduced

Clearance of entire stock of Linen Suits, including tailored long-coat models and very recent arrivals in Parisian bolero styles, at reductions averaging one-third. Former prices were $12 to $35; reduced prices are

$7.75 $12.75 $14.75 $23.75

$3.98 for Tub Suits of Linen or fine Lawn; "Royal" make. Former prices, $6 and $8. Colors are white, black, Alice blue and natural,

$2.50 Waists, $1.19

Choice of two styles (one with Dutch neck and short sleeves). of fine Lawn, trimmed with Val. lace and embroidery. Regular $2.50 quality. Special tomorrow at $1.19. . Garan Baran Ba

Miss Jessie King, Miss Bernice Henwood, Miss Mary Cohen, Mr. Johnnie King, Irving King and Prof. Edwin Green. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Miss Jessie King, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baker, Miss Minnie Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Wightman, Miss Myrtle Frazier, Mrs. King, Miss Estelle Ash, Mrs. Ruppel and daughter, Miss Maud Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker, Misses Mary and Cecelia Cohen, Mr. W. M. Clarke, Miss Eva Sherry, Mr. E. W. Webb, Miss Rena Brown, Mr. I. Cohen, Miss Bareh, at their residence, No. 237 Jackson Street, Angelogia and Angelia Miss International Company of the Canapic, via the Azores and straits of Gibratar. They will take an extended tour, returning via Liverpool for Philadelphia in September. Rena Sweeney, Mr. A. Poole, Miss Jennie Sweeney, Mr. Johnnie King, Miss Maggie Sweeney, Mr. E. J. King, Miss Bernice Henwood, Mr. W. H. Ward, Mr. Russell Baker, Prof. Ed Green, Mr. Charles Wise,

Mr. James A. Baker, Marion Thompson.
Miss Rosa M. Schultels entertained a party of friends at the residence of her grandfather, Mr. George M. Oyster, 210 East Capitol street, Wednesday evening last in honor of her birthday anniversary. Dancing and games were indulged in, after which refreshments were served. Among the guests were Misses Helen Durnin, Norah Richardson, Esther Smith, Marie Higgins, Edith Pigeon, Sadie Wagner, Mar-guerite Wagner, Carrie Morton, Lucy Morton, Maurita Harvey, Nellie Keane, May-belle Donohoe, Bessie Kane, Mary Shulteis and Messrs. Richard Sanderson, Ralph O'Brien, Francis Howard, Fairfax Oyster, Samuel Yoder, Edward Gibbons, Harry Shulteis, Randolph Titus and James

Miss E. Marguerite Weller of 753 8th street southeast is sojourning at the home of her uncle, Col. John Rouser, at Thurmont, western Maryland. Col. Rouser was formerly deputy register of wills for this A reception was given last Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Smith to their daughter, Marguerite A. Smith, in honor of her graduation from St. Patrick's Academy. The house was artistically decorated in the class colors of the young graduate, lavender and gold. An enjoyable evening was spent in singing and dancing, after which refreshments were served. Among those present were the Rev. Father McGulgan of St. Patrick's Church, Rev. Father Buckey of St. Matthew's Church, Miss Mary Griffin of Baltimore, Md.; Misses Marguerite Smith, Annie Lepley, Marie Hines, Eunice Dessez, Clara Mae Reichenbach, Blanche Price, Gertrude Burns, Marie Joyce, Irene Burdine, Lillie Miller, Lollie, Annie and Kate Mori-arty, Maude McClure, Marion Lennon, Irene McKelvey, Ida and Ella Buckley, Mary and Nellie Cahill, Emma Grieb, Minnie Adams, Katle McAvoy, Lena Diggins, Margaret Callahan and Messrs. Hall, Battenfield, Lennon, Hausler, M. and W. Lepley, Quintell Burns, Burdine, Charles and Vincent Smith, McKenna, Daly, Drony, Staley and Joseph Cooney of Baltimore, Md. During the course of the evening several se-lections were rendered by Miss Mary Griffin and Mr. H. Hall.

Thompson.

very pretty and impressive wedding took place Thursday morning at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, when Miss Lilian Keefe, only daughter of Mr. John Keefe, was married to Mr. Frank Han-nan, the Rev. Father Beavens officiating. Miss Laura Smithson, cousin of the bride was maid of honor, and Miss Maggie Hannan and Miss Kate Crimmins, sister and cousin, respectively, of the groom, were bride's maids. Mr. McGrath acted as best man and Mr. Tom Keefe and Mr. Leon Smithson, also brother and cousin of the bride, were the ushers. Miss Keefe was richly gowned in white silk crepe de chine over white taffeta with tulie veil crowned with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and bride roses. The maid of honor wore white point esprit, wearing a large picture hat of pink chiffon, and the bridesmaids were gowned in white organdie with white picture hats. They carried pink sweet peas. Mr. T. Crowthers sang several selections during the ceremony. After a breakfast for the immediate family at the new home of the bride and groom, the couple departed for a wedding trip north. They will be at home after July 18 at 1519 17th street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Franklin entertained Wednesday evening at their apartment at the Woodley Miss Katle V. Wilson, Dr. Kathryn Talmadge and Mr. Thomas Evans

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Richardson will sail on the Princess Irene for Naples July 8. Miss Emma Rowbottom of Newport News, Va., has returned home after a pleasant visit with her aunt, Mrs. James

G. Moore, 3042 U street. Miss Catherine Shively Koones is visit-ing at "Christowell," the home of her aunt, Mrs. Alfred C. Tolson, in Maryland.

A double wedding occurred at Philadel-A double wedding occurred at Philadelphia, Pa., the 13th instant, when Miss Anna J. Colen and Prof. George C. Watkins and Miss Elizabeth Colen and Mr. James Mr Ricks of the local bar were married. The brides are the daughters of Mr. William Colen of Hillsdale, D. C.

The Misses Anne and Sarah Lamborn,

A birthday party was given Tue day evening last in honor of Miss Mabei Burch by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Burch, at their residence, No. 237 Jackson street, Anacostia. The scene of the gatherstreet, Anacostla. The scene of the gathering was prettily decorated with colored lanterns and the guests were entertained with music, followed by the serving of refreshments. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Burch, Mrs. Maria Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. P. Weber, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Burch and daughter Elzata, Mrs. F. A. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Teates, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Rus. Mr. and Mrs. I. George W. Rus. Mrs. and Mrs. I. Mrs. George W. Rue, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Kirns and the Misses Emily Shoemaker, Emma But-ler, Rosina Fluoiti, Pauline Finotti and Marie Anderson and Master Paul Kirns. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Elrick or Pittsburg are spending a week in the city and are guests of W. F. Ashford and family, 26 Q street northeast.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucas Powell Loving have moved from 1295 19th street and have taken an apartment at the Howard, 1617 Swann

Miss Hilda Strasburger, who came over from Baltimore to attend the wedding of her cousin and has been stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Strasburger, 1446 Rhode Island avenue, has returned to her home.

Wednesday evening last Rev. Dr. Houck officiated at a very pretty wedding, when Miss Maude Grace Wright became the bride of Mr. Charles Fletcher Crump of this city. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Wright, 401 M street, in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. The bride, who was given away friends. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a charming gown of white lace over silk, trimmed with beautiful Italian lace. Her bouquet was of bride roses and she wore in her hair a coronet of roses and lities of the valley. The bridesmaids, the Misses Jennie, Mae and Fannie Harrison Wright, sisters of the bride, wearing dainty white dresses with bride, wearing dainty white dresses with pink girdles and carrying bouquets of pink roses, were the only attendants. Mr. Geo. W. Crump, brother of the groom, acted as best man. After the orated parlor, a wedding supper was Mr. and Mrs. Crump will be at home to their friends after July 1 at their new home, 413 M street.

which was performed in the profusely dec-

Social News of Langdon. Special Correspondence of The Star. LANGDON, Md., June 24, 1905.

Mr. E. A. M. Lawson and family of Langdon are visiting relatives in New Jer-Miss Katharine Fletcher of North Langdon is visiting relatives at Jamestown, N. Y. Mrs. I. J. Baker is convalescing from a severe illness. Mrs. C. T. Fletcher entertained the Langdon Euchre Club on the occasion of its last meet for the season at the Fletcher home in North Langdon. Mrs. J. A. Dickinson of Falls Church, Va., was a visitor at the Langdon Heights residence of her brother, Mr. Wilton Harvey, early in the week.

C. J. Sheriff and family of Langdon, D. C. are visiting their old home in the state of

AT VIRGINIA BEACH.

Questions of a Bank and Incorporated Town Uppermost. Special Correspondence of The Star.

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va., June 23, 1995. A topic of general discussion at present among the residents of the Beach is that referring to the prospective opening here of a bank. The need of such an institution was frequently mentioned last year, not only by the permanent residents, but by the guests in general. The nearest available banking house for Virginia Beach is in Norfoik, a ride of at least one and a quarter hours. The loss of time required to make these trips was very much felt.

Anna J. Colen and Prof. George C. Watkins and Miss Elizabeth Colen and Mr. James Mr. Ricks of the local bar were married. The brides are the daughters of Mr. William Colen of Hillsdale, D. C.

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. George Bailey of the Western Presbyterian Church are now located in their city home at 2032 G street northwest. under the system of a town corporation and not as in the present case distribute at large throughout the county. There are

Continued on Sixth Page.)

before the messages of peace began to cross and recross the big pond. The news in the situation is entirely of the unexpected Landrum and was interpreted by Mr. Crus In the situation is entirely of the unexpected variety. The deanship of the corps will be held by the Italian ambassador next season, and as he has just returned from an extended southern tour, is in no hurry to formulate another program, but has gone temporarily to Atlantic City. When the peace convention is ahead—Baron Resen, the coming Russian ambassador, being no stranger to Washington heat, provided himself with a residence in the Berkshires long. selle. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Corey left for Havana, where they stranger to Washington heat, provided him-self with a residence in the Berkshires long before he knew of the possible require-ment of his presence here. Mr. Goday, well known here, is coming back to be charge d'affaires for Mexico. The Austrian am-bassador, after a year's absence, is also shortly expected. The French Ambassa-dor and Mme. Jusserand will cross, as widow of a New Yorker, who died in 1887, and while in this city last year particilatter place was prompted to the minister-ship at Bogota. Here he met the lady who is now his wife. She is the daughter of the president of the English railroad which runs from Cartagena to Bogota, and is a

The dip' matic colony is fast being dis-tributed over the face of the civilized earth.

This especially applies to the feminine sec-tion or to that portion of ambassadors or ministers who had reached foreign shores vivacious and handsome English girl, country he was formerly accredited. Mr. of this city took place last week in At- Pacific coast to visit with their son-in-law Russell was formerly charge d'affaires at lanta. The bride is a deaf mute and missionary of the Southern Baptist convention to the deaf mutes of Cuba. She was reared in Cave Springs, Ga., where she re-ceived her education at the institute for the deaf located at that place. She is recog-nized as a young woman of unusual beauty and attractiveness of manner. She met Mr. Corey, who is a mining engineer, in Havana. He is interested in petroleum properties in Cuba and in the states and has large interests in California, where the most of his life has been spent.

The bride wore light cloth and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. The ceremony was performed by Dr. W. W.

> will spend a few weeks and thence they will go on an extended trip north and west. Countess Spottswood Mackin is about to marry a foreigner, it is announced, though his name or title is kept in the background. The countess, who is blessed with an extraordinary memory, has had scores of experiences in many lands and collected them in a book she published in the late nineties. Then she deplored her fault and daughter, Major and Mrs. George Mr. and Mrs. John W. Foster, after a few visits to their daughters, will spend heated term quietly at their place at Hen-

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Spencer will be at Tuxedo as usual this summer. Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley have been several weeks at their Tuxedo place.

Miss Cannon, daughter of the Speaker, and her friend, Mrs. Fort, will travel abroad for the next three months. Ex-Senator and Mrs. Henderson will close their home, Boundary Castle, July 1, and go to Bar Harbor, where they have a summer home. Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hen-open all winter, will spend the early sum-mer at Cazenovia, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Riggs and Miss Riggs are at Blue Ridge Summit, Pa.

derson, jr., who kept their Virginia place

the Clark place in Buffalo during the sum-

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moore, who have

The W. J. Boardmans, who sailed this month for the other side, leased their place "Wyndcliffe," at Manchester by the Sea for the summer. They are much missed there

Mrs. Crosby went abroad in the early part of this month, and will remain until the

Mrs. Beach Grant has taken a place at

Dr. and Mrs. Fremont Smith are at Bar

Justice and Mrs. Barnard are at Center

Dr. and Mrs. Horatio Bigelow are at Port dor and Mme. Jusserand will cross, as usual, although the former may return pated in many social events. Her maiden has shortly. The German ambassador has had his sailing date interfered with, but is in St. Louis, of which her father was once with the baroness at Deer Park until he is mayor. She has traveled the world over, with the baroness at Deer Park until he is mayor. She has traveled the world over, at the residence of Miss Marion B. Withall, and the residence of Miss Marion B. Withall, and the residence of the twenty-first birthday of their son, at the residence of the residence of the residence of the residence of the twenty-first birthday of their son, at the residence of the residence

Mr. Martin Madison Watson. Judson will be maid of honor and Mr. James C. Hollister best man. 'George E. Maydwell will officiate.

Miss Susan Elizabeth Pearson.

Martin Madison Watson will take place

June 28, at the home of the bride, 113 4th street northeast, at noon. The bride will

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Cromwell are at

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Johnson and their interesting young family will summer, as usual, at Blue Ridge Summit with Mrs. Morton, the mother of Mrs. Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Cromwell will summer at Saybrook, Conn., but the latter expects to go abroad in the autumn for a

Dr. and Mrs. David T. Day and children will travel throughout the northwest the next two months.

Col. and Mrs. M. M. Parker are established for the summer at their beautiful place at Camden, Me. Mrs. and Miss McCartney left town Fri-Rear Admiral and Mrs. Van Reypen have left for their summer home on Long Island.

especially during the rush of the season last year, when the finances of the Be-ch required almost daily trips to the city, and acting upon these suggestions several leading citizens made plans during the winter for the institution. The bank building, with